only enough evidence to warrant holding the prisoner, calling only three witnesses. Two testified to the death of the warman, and he third to McCleary's confession, made to Dr. W. B. Morrison in his presence.

Mrs. Antoinette Ehaugh, whose house is next door to the Henry home, was the old the second of the Kenry home, was the warman termined that the man termined the second of the Kenry home of the Kenry home of the Henry home for a few minutes and the murdered woman at the door of the Henry home for a few minutes and then went inside, remaining about twenty minutes. Soon after he left, Mrs. Henry came out, closed the front shutters, went in and was not seen alive afterward by any of her neighbors.

Dr. William S. Ash, nephew of the miredered woman, stated that upen notification of his aunt's death en Monday, August 19, he went to her home, found the hody lying arross the bed in an upstairs front room. It was partially dressed, having on a waist, skirt, and underwear. The arms were drawn up, the hands clutshed, and the tongue protunding from the mouth. It Ash stated decomposition had already set in, and that life had been extinct for at least three days.

to Washington, where he was later ar-rested.

After McCleary had made this state-ment to Dr. Morrison, State's Attorner Wolfinger, the witness said, read to Mc-Cleary the written confession that he had made to the State's Attorney, Chief of Police Fridinger, Lieutenant of Police Barber, and Deputy Sheriff Long. Mc-Cleary said it was correct, and that he felt better for having made it. At the conclusion of Mr. Logan's tes-timony, State's Attorney Wolfinger asked-that the accused be held without bond-for court. He intimated that the State did not care to disclose any more of its testimony at this time.
